Interests & Experiences

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

As an Assistant District Attorney working in juvenile delinquency court, I am particularly interested in serving on the JCPC board because I understand the importance of community collaboration when trying to address the needs of juveniles. A multi-disciplinary board ensures not only different perspectives but more informed solutions. In conjunction with my experience as a prosecutor, I was also a social worker prior to law school, and have great interest in serving and strengthening the entire family unit to help juveniles thrive.
