

Dillon Tyler

International Civil Rights Center & Museum | New Leaders Council

"Walls, when turned on their sides, become bridges." Dr. Maya Angelou shared this line with me years ago. It is now the mantra I carry with me every day.

dillon.n.tyler@gmail.com

919-951-8098

Greensboro, North Carolina

FELLOWSHIPS

Fellow

New Leaders Council

01/2020 – Present

New Leaders Council is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that works to recruit, train and promote young progressive leaders ranging from elected officials and civically-engaged leaders in business and industry.

2020 Vanguard Next City

04/2020 – Present

The Vanguard conference is a gathering of rising urban innovators working to make change in cities through interdisciplinary professions, all selected through a competitive global application process accepting only 40 people.

Cast Member Disney College Program

02/2013 – 08/2013

PROJECTS

Gun Violence Mitigation (08/2010 – Present)

- Organized and hosted the Marjory Stoneman Douglas students at the International Civil Rights Center & Museum — along with original Sit-In participants from 1960 — to collaborate and discuss intergenerational tactics used to create non-violent change.
- Travelled to Staten Island, NY, as a panelist for the 15th Annual Anti-Bias/Anti-Violence Summit hosted by Communities United for Respect and Trust.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts, Political Science (Pre-Law Concentration)

The University of North Carolina at Greensboro

08/2011 – 05/2016

Greensboro, NC

Capstone

- Used data from the Committee for a Responsible Federal Budget to examine economically and politically feasible solutions to Social Security viability through 2075

WORK EXPERIENCE

Tour Coordinator & Administrative Assistant

International Civil Rights Center & Museum

11/2016 – Present

Greensboro, NC

The International Civil Rights Center & Museum is a leading site on the U.S. Civil Rights Trail and an established International Site of Conscience.

Achievements/Tasks

- Engage in business and marketing strategies that strengthen the institution's vision and longevity.
- Educate the public on the Civil Rights Movement and its contemporary importance in political, social, and economic spheres.
- Craft and maintain long-term partnerships with local, state, and national foundations, corporations, and government entities.

Contact: John Swaine, CEO – jswaine@sitinmovement.org

Juvenile Crime Prevention Council Member

Guilford County Government

04/2017 – Present

As the third largest county in North Carolina, Guilford County represents over 530,000 North Carolinians.

Achievements/Tasks

- Appointed by the Guilford County Board of Commissioners for two consecutive terms.
- Determine and develop the adequacy of resources available to meet the needs of at-risk juveniles.
- Evaluate the performance of juvenile services and programs in the community.

Campaign Strategy Director

Bruce Davis for U.S. Congress

02/2016 – 11/2016

Achievements/Tasks

- Wrote and edited speeches, press releases, and key debate policy points.
- Coordinated with county and state organizations for support in field operations, fundraising operations, and opposition research.
- Crafted fundraising and social media strategies, increasing aggregate donations by 250%.

SKILLS

Negotiation

Public Speaking

Research & Strategy

Project Management

Adaptability

Empathy

Problem-solving