V. PRESENTATIONS

- A. 2026-121 RECOGNIZE GUILFORD COUNTY TAX DEPARTMENT FOR AWARDS RECEIVED DURING THE 2026 NC ASSOCIATION OF ASSESSING OFFICERS FALL CONFERENCE

Recognize the Guilford County Tax Department for awards received during the 2026 NC Association of Assessing Officer Fall Conference.

Legislation Text

Vice Chairwoman Foster welcomed Tax Director Ben Chavis along with staff to come forward to be recognized. She noted that for the second consecutive year, Guilford County's Tax Department was recognized for its service excellence.

Commissioner Foster recognized Tax Appraiser Nolan Lawson.

Lawson thanked the Board for the recognition. He noted that he was impressed by the knowledge the residents have shared, which is the understanding that their tax money covers things like EMS, law enforcement, and community services. He shared that the one thing that individuals ask is to simply be treated fairly. He shared that Guilford County has, in his experience, one of the best teams in the state.

Tax Director Chavis thanked the Board for their ongoing support over the years.

VI. CONSENT AGENDA

Chairman Alston introduced the consent and addendum agendas. He opened the floor for any items to be pulled for separate consideration. Hearing none, he entertained a motion.

VIII. NEW BUSINESS

A. 2026-111 RECEIVE ANNUAL AUDIT REPORT PRESENTATION FROM CHERRY BEKAERT, LLP

Receive report from Daniel Gougherty of Cherry Bekaert, LLP regarding the results of Guilford County's FY 2025 annual audit.

Legislation Text

Chief Finance Director Don Warn introduced the agenda item and thanked staff for their efforts.

Daniel Gougherty, Cherry Bekaert, LLP, noted that the result of the audit this year for the County was a clean and unmodified opinion on the financial statements, which is the highest and best outcome for an audit.

Gougherty noted the reviews on the county's internal control communication, with one significant deficiency regarding our arbitrage liability. He noted that this was a technical reporting finding and has been corrected and has not impacted the county's financial standing. He shared the qualitative aspects of accounting practices, independence considerations, other matters, upcoming changes, and the preliminary results of the single audit.

Commissioner Cashion, Audit Committee Chairwoman, thanked Mr. Gougherty for his report. She noted that it is always good to hear no findings and the return of a good report.

B. 2026-124 AUTHORIZE STAFF TO UTILIZE THE DESIGN-BUILD CONSTRUCTION CONTRACT METHOD FOR CONSTRUCTION OF A KITCHEN ANNEX AT THE HIGH POINT DETENTION FACILITY

Pursuant to N.C.G.S. 143-128.1A, authorize staff to utilize the Design-Build Construction Contract method for the High Point Jail Annex based on the project needs outlined above.

Legislation Text

HP Kitchen Annex Design-Build Recommendation

Facilities Director Eric Hilton noted that this item is to help rectify an issue at the High Point Jail regarding drainage issues. He shared that it is less expensive to add a kitchen annex rather than repair and staff is recommending a design-build as the best recommendation. He noted that a contract will be developed and an agenda item will be presented to the Board for consideration.

Motion was made by Vice Chairwoman J. Carlvena Foster, and seconded by Commissioner Kay Cashion, to adopt pursuant to N.C.G.S. 143-128.1A, authorize staff to utilize the Design-Build Construction Contract method for the High Point Jail Annex based on the project needs outlined above.
