Interests & Experiences

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

I have been a sworn law enforcement officer with the Guilford County Sheriff's Office for approximately 16 years. During my years of experience, I have focused on the area of investigations. I have seen first hand what many of the members of our community experience from criminal activity and how it effects them. From those experiences, I have a passion to improve our community and help those in need. I am looking to be a apart of this board to expand my reach and have a greater impact on our community.
