Interests & Experiences

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

I have served on JCPC for the last several years through my position as Community Impact Manager for Education and Income at United Way of Greater Greensboro. Through UWGG's work to break the cycle of poverty in Greater Greensboro, I have direct responsibility for overseeing grantmaking for programs that help at-risk youth achieve academic, career, and personal success. Children and youth served through JCPC-funded programs are at great risk of being trapped in the cycle of poverty. I am personally and professionally committed to helping the JCPC make the best possible decisions for investing in our community's most vulnerable youth.
