Discussion on Exceptions and Support for Lead Agency/Collaborative Applicant Homelessness Taskforce

ACM Isler spoke to skipping ahead in the presentation to conduct a MOU cross-examination. He examined the CoC lead agency on a local level over one (1) – two (2) – five (5) years. He highlighted key roles to include administrative duties, system development and planning, monitoring duties, and communication duties. He spoke to the Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG) and Notices of Funding Opportunities (NOFO) funding sources, leveraging public-private dollars, and recognized moving forward with capacity.

ACM Isler noted that for administrative duties, the key is to focus on clerical responsibilities, and to inform, advise, and consult during staff meetings. He shared that the key focus for system development is to coordinate partners within the housing and services system. He highlighted winter shelter partnerships, maintaining communications, reviewing the gap analysis, and action plan development. He noted cross-jurisdiction collaborations, shared resources, and system coordination for uniformity.

ACM Isler noted site visits for monitoring efforts to ensure return on investment with service delivery. He highlighted communication duties to include goal alignment, messaging, and creating a data hub to have real-time information access. He explained that the broad MOU is in place and there are peer communities that have structures in place along with internal staffing evaluations.

Taskforce Tri-Chair Vaughan noted that under the communication duties, the community needs to know that Guilford County is the Lead Agency instead of Greensboro or High Point. She suggested raising the County's profile.

Taskforce Tri-Chair Alston questioned the official date.

ACM Isler confirmed that the MOU received June 17th Board approval with pending contract execution.

County Attorney Andrea Leslie-Fite confirmed a July date to be announced.

Taskforce Tri-Chair Alston questioned whether there was a budget developed regarding additional County expenses. He further inquired into whether the County was required to fill any gaps within that structure, and how costs are expended as the Lead Agency for accountability purposes.

ACM Isler confirmed administrative Housing and Urban Development (HUD) funding of over $100K for staffing costs. He noted annually we receive over $280K in ESG funds. He provided an allocation breakdown explained at the last taskforce meeting. He shared that over $2M annually in NOFO funds come from HUD. He explained that with these different resources, the greatest focus is on permanent supportive housing. He shared that Greensboro has an annual award process that we can investigate.

Taskforce Tri-Chair Alston questioned if the amount was closer to $2.7M allocated by the state, through a CoC Board that issues grants.

CoC Board Chair Erin Stratford-Owens confirmed that the CoC committee and collaborative applicant review incoming applications that match strategies and goals.

Taskforce Tri-Chair Alston opined on who adopts the strategic plan and goals.

CoC Board Chair Stratford-Owens confirmed that we annually do this along with a CSH partnership with SWOT-O and highlighted a One Guilford philosophy.

Taskforce Tri-Chair Alston questioned the timing of HUD fund distribution.

ACM Isler confirmed different cycles in late fall disbursements from HUD regarding ESG ($278,141) and NOFO ($2.76M) with a total allocation of $3,042,373.

Taskforce Tri-Chair Alston questioned the housing position and administrative costs.

ACM Isler confirmed that the last Board action provided over $600K in American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) funds for staffing costs. He shared that County dollars go towards staffing costs, and HUD allocation is restricted to service delivery. He noted that administrative functions require local dollars.

Taskforce Tri-Chair Alston questioned the community development block grants (CDBG) funds?

ACM Isler confirmed that those are restricted dollars for its stated purpose. He noted that he will provide that data.

County Manager Michael Halford confirmed $120K from the HOME Investment Partnerships Program (HOME) consortium was just renewed for housing and rehabilitation.

Taskforce Tri-Chair Alston opined that the County has historically been a pass-through for $250K in funds that are given to the City of Greensboro.

Taskforce Tri-Chair Vaughan confirmed pledged HUD funds allocation to include CDBG totaling $2,489,554; HOME $1,383,573.18; ESG $207,632; and HOPWA $1,275,774, along with Action Plan adherence with applicable August deadlines.

Taskforce Tri-Chair Alston recommended confirming the dollar amounts, considering that the County is now getting into the housing realm.

Commissioner Cashion requested municipal funding information.

ACM Isler confirmed working with both municipalities and aligning collective strategies with the funding received. He stated that once a strategic plan is secured, our roles, albeit independent, should be aligned.

City of High Point Director of Community Development & Housing Nena Wilson spoke to High Point's CDBG allocations to include $841,549 in ESG funds and $424,074 in HOME funds. She highlighted public-private partnerships. She referred to the $12M Section 108 funds that are borrowed against future CDBG allocations. She shared that Section 108 is a guaranteed loan that High Point has used for multi-family affordable housing projects.

Taskforce Tri-Chair Alston reiterated that $250K in CDBG funds for housing repairs were received by the County and given to the city. He explained that if we are establishing a housing department, then we can use those funds.

Commissioner Cashion noted that Saxena's presentation regarding the responsibilities was very helpful. She spoke to efficiency, to creative solutions, to communication challenges, and to having one central housing hub.

CoC Board Chair Stratford-Owens shared her excitement for having a point agency for CoC members and the public, technical assistance on staff, and a positive future.

County Manager Halford advised for the taskforce to look at the full spectrum regarding housing responsibilities, and having a joint operation with our municipal partners.

ACM Isler recalled the Wicked Problems demonstration during the Board Retreat as a convener and facilitator to gather separate efforts and put them together. He shared that we can work with our municipal partners and move collectively to address the unhoused issue.

Commissioner Foster left the meeting at 5:02 p.m.

CoC Board Chair Stratford-Owens outlined recent meetings that developed strategic planning topic areas to include (1) Governance, (2) Culture and Communication, (3) Partnerships, (4) Programs/Initiatives, (5)

DRAFT

Performance, and (6) Funding. She spoke to a timeline from June through September for goal development, finalizing the plan, and Board presentation. She noted that the surveys and information gathering have already been completed, which shortens the timeline for a traditional strategic plan.

ACM Isler reiterated the action items mentioned at the top of the presentation, highlighted the in-progress items requiring internal review and development to include (1) Guilford County will develop and implement an operational and staffing structure to support Lead Agency duties and (2) Allotting space for the CoC to return in September with its strategic plan, and leveraging the MOU around priorities. He reviewed future roles and responsibilities, including the call to action. He concluded the presentation by speaking to considerations (1) NC-504 CoC strategic planning timeline, (2) Guilford County operational and staffing structure planning, and (3) Recruitment and selection of relevant staff.

CoC HUD Grants - Outlook

Grant funding agreements are being issued for projects

- HUD is working in order of grant performance period start dates - January starts are first, then February, etc.
- Funding agreements do have new and/or changed provisions in them reflecting current administration priorities and actions.

The continuing resolution that Congress passed in early March does not include additional funds for Continuum of Care grants – the impact of this is not clear at this time but potential outcomes include:

- 2024 awards being reduced back to 2023 award levels instead of receiving the regular Annual Renewal Demand escalator
- Potential to change the current two-year NOFO application and award back to a single year (HUD can/may do this regardless of funding, too)
