Receive DHHS - Division of Social Services update on Aging and Adult Services.

Legislation Text

AASD PRESENTATION - APRIL 2017 FINAL

Jenise Davis, Division Director of Adult and Aging Services reviewed the mission and vision of the Ageing and Adult Services in Guilford County. Davis reviewed the various programs within Adult and ageing services including Guardianship programs, Unclaimed bodies and Adult placements, in-home aid services, registered nurses and adult day care programs.

Foster in at 6:13PM

Davis shared that there is a need to increase staffing levels for County Veterans services.

Davis noted that there continues to be a rise in average number of adult guardianship cases as well as veteran services

Commissioner Cashion noted the larger volume of telephone calls received by veteran services versus in person applications for benefits.

Jack Milam, Veteran Services Program Supervisor clarified the application services that are processed by the division. He noted that they receive various questions for resources in the community.

Commissioner Coleman questioned the Grants writing section and their willingness to work with other agencies and community based agencies in writing grants to increase outreach services within the community.

Darryl Griffin shared that they are willing to work with non-profits and community based programs to help provide services to clients. He noted that there is a lack of service providers in our community. He shared that with the advent of the Family Justice center they are better able to receive grants.

Coleman asked if they were working with Faith based organizations as service providers

Darryl Griffin, Adult Protective Services Supervisor shared that they have not yet, but are willing and open to work with all groups.

Phillips questioned the cumulative state dollars directed toward aging population in Guilford County.

Skeens stated that they could provide that data.

Skeens thanked the Ageing and Adult Services staff for all the work that they do.

Skeens provided an update on Medicaid timeliness issues. She noted that in March was the first time the County passed all four areas. She noted that they are also passing at a 93% in April as well. She noted that now fully staffed they are able to meet the state and federal guidelines and thanked the board for their support.

B. 2017-111 DHHS - PUBLIC HEALTH DIVISION UPDATE: GUILFORD COUNTY COMMUNITY HEALTH ASSESSMENT

Receive DHHS - Public Health Division update on the Guilford County Community Health Assessment.

Legislation Text

Merle Green recognized two of her staff members for their communicable Disease surveillance and investigation work.

Supervisor Tammy Koontz reviewed the process of communicable disease investigations.

Martin Robinson presented the findings of the community health assessment. Robinson reviewed the community partners, and methodology for the assessment. He reviewed the goals of the assessments and the purpose to help identify strategies. He discussed the four priority areas and the next steps in the community action plan. Robinson shared that the new Piedmont Health Counts Website to use measure community health best practices and drive community health improvements with an expected Go- Live date in June.

Commissioner Foster questioned if African American males rank as the highest infant mortality groups.

Mr. Robinson stated that there is an ongoing disparity in the African American community. He noted; however, that they do have a high rate of participation in prenatal care.

Cashion questioned the Mental Health assessment findings.

Mr. Robinson reviewed the random sampling of households and 24% of those interviewed reported some level of Mental Health concerns particularly depression or anxiety.

Commissioner Coleman asked about additional community engagement opportunities.

Green shared some of the examples of community based initiatives and projects based on targeted grant funding.

IX. COMMENTS FROM COUNTY MANAGER

Phillips provided an update on the intention of establishing a joint building and capital construction planning committee between the Board of Commissioners and the Board of Education that was discussed at the Commissioners Annual Retreat in February.

Phillips reviewed the membership that he would appoint to the committee. He noted that Chairman of the Board of Education Alan Duncan, Board members Anita Sharpe and Dena Hayes along with Superintendent Dr. Contreras would serve with Himself Commissioner Hank Henning, Vice Chairman Alan Branson and County Manager Marty Lawing. He reminded the board that intention is for the committee to meet on a quarterly basis. Phillips shared that they have drafted a proposed charter as to how the committee would operate and would provide to the board for consideration at the next board meeting.

He shared that the Board of Education is looking to put out a request for qualifications for a school utilization study. He noted that at this time the County has no financial commitment for the proposal.

Commissioner Foster questioned the diversity of the of the proposed committee. She questions the appointments and how they are being made.

Phillips shared that he selected his appointments based on their construction backgrounds. He noted that the committee would not make any decisions without the full input of both Boards. Phillips questioned if any members would like to serve as an alternate.

Branson noted that the School Board has assigned an alternate to their membership. He shared that any commissioner interested are welcome to attend the committee meetings.

Commissioner Coleman indicated that she would not be interested in an alternate position, but shared that she would like to see more females and diversity on the committee.

Phillips reiterated that the full Board of Commissioners will have an opportunity to weigh in and provide input on any recommendations that are presented by the committee. He shared that the committee is a great opportunity to work together with the schools.

Lawing provided an update as to the 2/3rds Bonds approved and shared that the bonds have closed and will provide an update at the budget work session.

X. COMMENTS FROM COMMISSIONERS

Commissioner Conrad shared the upcoming fundraising fishing tournament for children's cancer research he invited members of the community to help support the event.

Foster shared her attendance at the Alpha Kappa Cotillion and her representation of the Board of Commissioners.

Commissioner Cashion thanked Commissioner Conrad for his work on the cancer fundraising project.

Perdue shared his attendance for Guilford Metro 911 award ceremony where they identified 43 lifesaving awards. He noted that Metro 911 is a national role model for their collaboration between the City and the County.

Jeff Phillips announced the State of County to be shared to be held May 4, 2017 at 5:00 and shared his hopes that all of the commissioners could be in attendance.
