The Guilford County Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) seek proposals for community-based programs targeting delinquent or gang involved youth (ages 10-17), or those at risk of juvenile court involvement. The JCPC anticipates funds from the NC Department of Public Safety in the amount of $1,289,575 to fund these programs through a selective evaluation process. A 30% local match is required; this match may be cash or in-kind. Such programs will serve delinquent and at-risk youth for the state fiscal year 2020-2021 beginning on, or after, July 1, 2020.

The JCPC will consider proposals for the following needed programs:

Interpersonal Skill Building
Juvenile Structured Day
Mentoring Services

Parent/Family Skill Building
Restitution/Community Service
Runaway Shelter

Teen Court
Temporary Shelter
Vocational Skills

Proposed program services should target the following risk factors for delinquency or repeat delinquency:

School Behavior Problems, Pro-social peer rejection and association with other involved in delinquent activity, Parent/Family Enhancement Skills needed, Reduction in Juvenile Recidivism, Substance Use, Youth association with Gang members, Vocational Development and Skills, and Family Criminality.

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Needs Assessments for adjudicated youth:

Peer Domain: Guilford County youth involved with the juvenile justice system sometimes and/or regularly associate with others involved in delinquent/criminal and gang activity.

Individual Domain: Guilford County youth involved in the juvenile justice system have issues with Substance abuse or use, youth with mental health needs, or need vocational development services.

Family Domain: Parental support and/or parental enhancement skills needed for juvenile court referred youth, and family criminality. Access services that provide best practices and have the ability to engage families are needed.

School Domain: Youth involved with Guilford County Juvenile Justice system have increased risk of school behavior issues reflected in prolonged absences and suspensions.

Applicants are being sought that are able to address items below:

1. Program services compatible with research that are shown to be effective with juvenile offenders.
2. Program services are outcome-based.
3. The program has an evaluation component.
4. Program services detect gang participation and divert individuals from gang participation.

Local public agencies, 501(c)(3) non-profit corporations and local housing authorities are invited to submit applications to provide services addressing the above elements.
