Briefly list your professional, educational and volunteer experiences that are most relevant to the mission and duties of this board:

Professionally, I have served in the North Carolina Public School system for over 5 years as an Instructional Support Assistant within the elementary school environment, educating and advocating for students with diverse learning styles and abilities. Currently, in the intermediate school setting, I serve as a Choral Director and have done so for the 3 years and counting. In addition, I am an Adjunct Professor at North Carolina Central University, who is a part of the University of North Carolina school system. And as the Chief Executive Officer of the Spirit Ministry Team, Inc., a local evangelism and outreach ministry for over 6 years, we strive to identify the needs of our community and impact lives through building relationships, building bridges between ethnic groups and maintaining a culture of equity amongst people from all walks of life. Although successful in my educational career, I have realized various aspects of my work in where I am passionate and consistent, seeking to expand, strengthen, embed my talents within a new role and challenge myself in my career by transitioning into the field of administration. Here are a few highlights of my qualifications: • Solid foundation in maintaining confidentiality and meeting deadlines: I am responsible for engagement in meetings with highly sensitive information; writing, reporting and filing confidential documents; while also adhering to designated time restraints. • Dynamic communication style: I am adept in building relationships, consensus and a shared sense of purpose. Known for my ability to quickly establish trust and rapport with colleagues, motivate others into action and exhibit strong oratory and written skills. • Experience in training: Consistently, throughout my educational career and volunteerism opportunities, my passion for the design and delivery of staff development programs are exemplary. Comfortable, confident and experienced speaker to deliver to acute to a mass population. Fluent in presenting topics of interest to diverse audiences across all organizational levels. • Detail-oriented: I am sensitive to the needs of others by paying close attention to words spoken, non-verbal cues and listening carefully in order to know when and how to proceed effectively. I have strong planning skills and am both resourceful and quick to respond in a crisis. You will find me to be well-spoken, energetic, personable, and eager to learn new things with a mindset for excellence and most importantly ready to execute. These attributes combined with my ability to work both independently and in a team environment, along with my strong organizational and multi-tasking skills, ensure that I plan and coordinate the dynamics of specially designed tasks. In my resume you will see my specific skills, experience and highlights of career advancements.
