To Whom It May Concern:

United Way of Greater Greensboro acknowledges and approves Carie Jones-Barrow, Community Impact Manager, as our designee to the Guilford County Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC.) Carie has served as our designee since 2013, and in that time, she has fulfilled all duties of JCPC membership with diligence and professionalism as well as a commitment to improving our community by reducing and preventing juvenile crime. Throughout her tenure, Carie has contributed significantly to JCPC by serving on the Finance and By Laws Committees, and she is currently the Chair for Monitoring.

United Way of Greater Greensboro is pleased to support Carie's reappointment to JCPC. Please feel free to contact me directly if additional information is needed.

Sincerely,

Frank McCain
Vice President, Community Impact & Investment
