

MINUTES OF BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF GUILFORD COUNTY

Greensboro, North Carolina
October 19, 2017

The Board of County Commissioners met in a duly noticed regular meeting on October 19, 2017 at 5:30 p.m., in the Commissioners' Meeting Room, 301 W. Market St., Greensboro; North Carolina.

PRESENT: Chairman Jeffrey M. Phillips, Vice Chairman Alan Branson (arrived 5:43 p.m.), Commissioners Alan Perdue, Justin Conrad, Kay Cashion, Hank Henning, and Melvin "Skip" Alston

ABSENT: J. Carlvena Foster, Carolyn Q. Coleman

ALSO PRESENT: County Manager Marty Lawing, County Attorney Mark Payne, Clerk to the Board Robin Keller, Deputy County Manager Clarence Grier, Deputy Clerk to the Board Scott Baillargeon, Guilford County Staff, and members of the media

I. INVOCATION

Board Chaplain Ben Chavis provided the invocation.

II. PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Chairman Phillips led those present in the Pledge of Allegiance

III. WELCOME AND CALL TO ORDER

Chairman Phillips called the meeting to order at 5:36 p.m.

IV. SPEAKERS FROM THE FLOOR

Melinda Coleman, Greensboro resident, spoke to a recent high speed chase, and addressed the need to change the policy on high speed chases through urban areas.

Jennifer Oakley, Pleasant Garden resident, urged the Board to reflect on their duty as public servants to address the needs of the community. She expressed concerns regarding the potential loss of water, and its impact to their community should a quarry be approved in their community.

Barry Dean Hackett, Pleasant Garden local contractor and general developer, spoke in opposition to the proposed rock quarry, and spoke to the low production of the other quarries in the community. He shared that the ideal development in Guilford County is residential and not high impact industrial usage.

Kim Rayle, Pleasant Garden resident, shared her opposition to the proposed quarry in the Pleasant Garden community. She stated that there are currently four active granite quarries in Guilford County, and that none were producing at full capacity.

Heather Davis, Pleasant Garden resident, shared that she and her family are fifth generation farmers, and spoke to the imperatives of clean water to sustain their farms. She expressed concerns to mining practices that often result in ground water contamination. She shared that heavy industry is not compatible with the neighboring property usage.

Robin Holder, Pleasant Garden resident, spoke in opposition to the proposed quarry, and expressed concerns about the additional noise, dust, and increased truck traffic during peak times that would be in conflict with school traffic.

Hailey Hackett, Pleasant Garden resident, expressed concern for the proposed quarry in the community. She spoke to the benefits of residential development contrary to heavy industrial development. She urged the Board to vote against the zoning request.

Rick Strickland, Pleasant Garden resident, spoke in opposition to the proposed quarry in Pleasant Garden, and stated that the City of Greensboro did not have plans to run water out to the Pleasant Garden Community. He expressed concerns with access to clean water with the additional blasting, and spoke to the trend of increased numbers of families moving from cities into rural communities, and the subsequent negative impacts a quarry would have on that trend should a quarry open in southeast Guilford County.

Dr. Cesar Marimon, Pleasant Garden resident, spoke to the aspects of the community being a family-oriented, and expressed concerns for real estate and market values of private properties in the community as result of a quarry. He stated that since the majority of the property is agricultural and residential, that the zoning of the quarry would be a detriment to the community. He asked the Board to vote no to the rezoning area.

Roger Pike, Pleasant Garden resident, reiterated the community's concerns, and voiced his opposition to the proposed quarry. He spoke to the additional nuisances that the proposed quarry would create.

V. PRESENTATIONS

A. 2017-303 PROCLAIM OCTOBER AS BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH IN GUILFORD COUNTY

Commissioner Cashion inquired about the need for the medical social worker, and if the position would be implemented in other areas, and how the program would be funded.

County Manager Marty Lawing stated that some of those programs are being selected by the Piedmont Triad Regional Council Commission on Aging. Lawing reviewed the changes made over a year ago to move the in-home aid services under Social Services. Lawing stated that this change will cover congregate meals once a month in the rural communities. He stated that the funds provide for part-time staff, and that the rest would be for meals. Lawing introduced Renee Griffin to speak to the query of how the program would be funded.

Director of Senior Resources of Guilford County, Renee Griffin, stated that the services in question would be assumed by Social Services, and noted that with the area agency made funding changes last year, they were no longer providing those services. She reiterated that although they will not be providing services, they will be provided through DSS.

VIII. NEW BUSINESS

A. 2017-357 CONTRACT WITH UNC-G FOR PARTNERSHIP IN OPIOID RESPONSE

Approve contract, in substantial form, with the University of North Carolina at Greensboro for partnership in combating opioid deaths in Guilford County. Contract to be effective November 1, 2017 until June 30, 2019, with the option of one year renewals.

Legislation Text

UNC-G -OPIOID RAPID RESPONSE - 9-28-17.docx

Emergency Services Director, Jim Albright, stated that Guilford County has not been immune to the opioid crisis. He stated that Guilford County is tasked with helping to address the issue. Albright reviewed a power point presentation and outlined the negative impact the drug has on the body causing the inability to breath. He noted that there have been over 600 overdoses in Guilford county since January 2017, and that it was the first time in history that the number of opioid deaths exceeded the number of deaths caused by traffic incidents. Albright stated that opioid deaths are a priority for the NCACC, and Guilford County was selected as one of two counties to pilot the program. Albright reviewed the focus areas of the program. He stated that the goal is to stop the rising rate of overdoses and deaths from opioids in Guilford county. He noted that the program is focused on harm reduction strategies to get residents into drug treatment programs. They will provide follow-up encounters with persons at highest risk of overdoses such as those who received post reversal from public safety and those who have received Emergency Department evaluation for overdose or opioid abuse. Albright reviewed the collaborative partners including UNC-G, Public Health and Moses Cone Hospital. Albright reviewed the first and second phases of the program, and noted that current funding provides for the program for 19 months; however, the accumulation of academic data will require the program to seek additional funders.

Commissioner Cashion noted that this will be a tremendous help to the community. She asked about the timeline of implementation.

Albright stated that they are moving aggressively, and hope to bring the program live in November. He noted that they are currently distributing naloxone to highest need areas, but there is a need for follow-up care.

Chairman Phillips questioned the navigator position, the selection process, and the measure of impact on the community regarding the type of monitoring, recording, and accountability measures that would be implemented.

Albright stated that he will be on the selection committee and will work collaboratively with the hiring committee. Albright stated that the primary referral will come from EMS, and they are currently working on HIPPA releases for the program, paying careful attention to the structure of who comes into the program. He noted that typically it takes 4-6 encounters to encourage participants to participate in full treatment programs.

Chairman Phillips thanked staff and noted that this is an excellent first step to address the crisis in Guilford county

Motion was made by Alan Perdue, and seconded by Alan Branson to Approve contract, in substantial form, with the University of North Carolina at Greensboro for partnership in combating opioid deaths in Guilford County. Contract to be effective November 1, 2017 until June 30, 2019, with the option of one year renewals.
