TITLE

PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER APPROVAL, SOLELY FOR PURPOSES OF MEETING THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE, OF UP TO $19,000,000 IN EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES REVENUE BONDS TO BE ISSUED BY THE PUBLIC FINANCE AUTHORITY FOR THE BENEFIT OF REVOLUTION ACADEMY

BACKGROUND

The Public Finance Authority (PFA) is a governmental unit of the State of Wisconsin created for the purpose of issuing tax-exempt and taxable conduit bonds for public and private entities nationwide. PFA is sponsored by the National Association of Counties, the National League of Cities, the Wisconsin Counties Association and the League of Wisconsin Municipalities. Any debt issued is not debt of the County or PFA, but rather is payable solely from debt service payments received from the entity involved (in this case, Revolution Academy ("Revolution Academy")). Many North Carolina charter schools have been financed by PFA. In addition, Guilford County has approved other PFA financings, including ones for Cone Health and Friends Homes. Over 110 projects (educational facilities, CCRCs, hospitals and others) in North Carolina have been financed by PFA. Each had to go through the same local public approval process.

PFA has been requested to issue the Bonds in the principal amount of up to $19,000,000 for (1) financing the acquisition, construction, equipping and furnishing a new building and campus for a K-12 school to be known as Revolution Academy (the “Project”); (2) financing certain funds and accounts; and (3) paying certain costs of issuance.

Federal tax law requires that tax exempt bonds issued to finance or, in certain circumstances, refinance, facilities owned by nonprofit organizations be approved by the elected legislative body (or highest elected representative) of the governmental unit that has jurisdiction over the area in which the facility is to be located. Prior to this approval, Internal Revenue Code Section 147(f) requires that a public hearing be held, at which hearing the public is given the opportunity to comment on the Project.

Because the proceeds of the Bonds will be used to finance and refinance projects located in County, the Board is one of the appropriate governing bodies to approve the use of tax-exempt bonds to finance and refinance the Projects for the purposes of Section 147(f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Because interest rates for these types of financing are at historic lows, time is of the essence. Closing is currently expected in January of this year. Revolution Academy will promise to repay the principal, premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds. Neither PFA nor the County will have any liability whatsoever for the payment of principal or interest on the Bonds. Revolution Academy or its affiliates will be solely responsible for repayment of the Bonds.

The Bonds shall not be deemed to constitute a debt of the County or a pledge of the faith and credit of the County, but shall be payable solely from the revenues and other funds provided therefor.

The County will have no responsibility whatsoever for the Bonds. The Bonds will not affect the County’s debt ratios or legal debt limit. Because no taxes or other revenues of the County are pledged to pay these bonds, the staff of the County has made no financial analysis of the Bonds, Revolution Academy or the Project.

The notice of public hearing was published in Greensboro News & Record as required by law. The form of the resolution to be adopted by the Board is also listed below.
