WHEREAS, bullying other children and being the target of bullies are considered risk factors for youth violence by the National Center for Injury Prevention and Control (of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention) and other relevant organizations, and bullies whose behavior goes unchallenged risk ending up as violent adults, engaging in domestic violence and child abuse; and

WHEREAS, students and staff should also be reminded that our country abides by the most fundamental right of a democracy: civil debate; allowing citizens to freely express their concerns and beliefs, and discuss important issues in a neutral, impartial environment; and
