TITLE

PURCHASE OF DUTY HANDGUNS AND HOLSTERS

SPONSOR

Sheriff BJ Barnes (Ken Whitesell)

BACKGROUND

The Sheriff's Office is requesting the purchase of new duty weapons, holsters and magazines holders to replace our current duty weapons. We have had our current duty weapons since 2009 they are Smith and Wesson M&P 45 caliber. The Sheriff's Office routinely replaces the duty weapons every 8 to 10 years. This is needed from the Officer Safety aspect, as well as, the citizens we serve. Normally over the course of 8 to 10 years the nights sights start needing replacing, as well as, some other parts within the weapon such as springs and the normal wear and tear of shooting the weapon during annual qualification and other training. We are purchasing (410) Glock 17/19 at $409.00 each and (40) Glock model 19 with MOS sight platform at $481.00 each and (75) model 17 additional magazines at $18.99 each and (25) addition model 19 magazines at $18.99 each. The total expenditure would be $188,829.00. Glock will allow a trade in value of $315.00 for each Smith & Wesson handgun traded in to make the cost of the purchase $55,899.00
