TITLE

SCHOOL CAPITAL ORDINANCE REVISIONS - CTE CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROJECT

SPONSOR

Dr. Sharon Contreras (Angie Henry), on behalf of the Board of Education

BACKGROUND

On March 12, 2019, the Guilford County Board of Education (BOE) approved the transfer of funds for a new Career and Technical Education (CTE) Capital Improvement Project ordinance from the existing project ordinances for Smith High School Academy, Northeast High School, Ragsdale High School, Southeast High School, Summerfield Elementary School, Southeast Middle School, North Greensboro Area Elementary Schools, Allen Jay Middle School, Dudley High School - Athletics, Northwest High School - Site & Athletics, Page High School - Athletics, Bluford Elementary School - Renovation, Dudley High - New Traffic Pattern, Guilford Middle School - Replacement, High Point Central - Addition/Renovation, Northwood Elementary School, and Smith High School - Athletic Renovation.

These dollars will be used to fund design/construction/renovation in the six (6) signature Career and Technical Education (CTE) academies at the following schools: Academy at Smith, Kearns Academy, Northeast High School, Smith High School, Southeast High School, and Western High School. To provide proper CTE classroom and laboratory spaces necessary for the programs, the BOE requests transferring these funds into a CTE capital improvements project.
