Interests & Experiences

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

In my professional role, I am honored to serve as the Director of School Social Work Services, Homeless Services and Dropout Prevention for Guilford County Schools! I believe that my experience in this role for the past 8 years and my professional skills align with the vision of the Health & Human Services Advisory Committee to promote public health and social services needs across Guilford County. It would truly be an honor to serve in this capacity and support the advancement the work of the committee in fostering shared accountability and using allocated resources to alleviate the barriers of children and families county-wide.
