

LATASHA LOVETTE

Compassionate and results driven management professional with a focus on addressing homelessness through strategic program development, data-driven analysis, and cross-sector collaboration. Skilled in grant management, community outreach, and providing support to vulnerable populations. Adept at using research and performance metrics to create sustainable, impactful solutions to homelessness and social inequality.

---

Skills

- Homelessness Services & Program Management
  - Strategic Planning & Community Engagement
  - Client Needs Assessment & Case Management
  - Budget Management & Financial Compliance
  - Community Relations
  - Data Analysis & Reporting
  - Grant Writing & Compliance
  - Stakeholder Collaboration & Advocacy
  - Crisis Management & Resource Allocation
  - Culturally Competent Communication
-

Work history

Case Manager

West End Ministries, High Point, USA

June 2024 - Current

- Conduct comprehensive intake assessments and develop individualized service plans.
- Coordinate emergency, transitional, and permanent housing placements and support housing retention.
- Connect clients to public assistance, healthcare, mental health, and employment resources.
- Advocate for clients and provide crisis intervention within social service and legal systems.
- Maintain documentation in HMIS and ensure compliance with HUD and program standards.
- Collaborate with community partners and participate in multi-disciplinary and coalition meetings.

CSBG Director

Welfare Reform Liaison Project, Guilford County, USA

May 2013 - Current

- Spearheaded programs focused on homelessness prevention and support services, significantly reducing public assistance dependency.
  - Collaborated with local organizations, housing authorities, and government entities to align services and improve client access to housing resources.
  - Utilized data to assess client needs, providing tailored solutions for clients at risk of homelessness.
  - Managed a team of 15 staff, ensuring high levels of service delivery and professional development.
  - Created and managed grant applications and budgets, ensuring program compliance with sponsor requirements.
  - Led community outreach efforts to educate and engage the public about homelessness prevention and available resources.
  - Analyzed performance data, implementing strategies for program improvement and better outcomes for at-risk populations.
-

Education

Master of Social Work

North Carolina Central University, Durham, NC

Bachelor of Science in Human Services

Gardner-Webb University, Boiling Springs, NC

---

Certifications & Training

- Certified in Crisis Intervention
- Homelessness Prevention and Housing Assistance Training